

I would like to know why they wouldn't do the same thing the catholic >school is doing and send the kids that direction?
>I understand they are simcoe board but how does it make sense to bus >these kids here which is 1 hr bus ride. And I'm pretty sure that some >families have no means of transportation! Putting kids on a bus for 1 >hour is ridiculous and not the only option!
>I really hope the board does what is best for the kids and not what is >best for our numbers within the board !
>Also I worry that the kids who are currently in our small school as well >as the new students help will be depleted even more than what they >already are when it comes to kids with special needs. How will the >teachers adjust to even more IEPs when they can't keep up with the ones >they have ?
>How will these kids who have only ever been in a small class (honey >harbour) adjust to being in bigger class rooms and single grade class >rooms.
>We must also think of emergency situations and if the parent has no means >of transportation how is this fair to the families in this position?
>
>Thanks
